

Hunger in Developed Countries

Why It Exists and How We Can End It

Joel Berg is a leading U.S. activist, researcher, and media spokesperson on domestic hunger and poverty. He is Executive Director of the New York City Coalition Against Hunger, a not for profit organization which works to “enact innovative solutions to help society move ‘beyond the soup kitchen’ to ensure economic and food self-sufficiency for all Americans”. He is the author of “All You Can Eat. How hungry is America?”.

Joel will be in Australia as a guest of the Sydney-based Right to Food Coalition, and will be the keynote speaker at the inaugural food security conference being held in Sydney on 13 & 14 October.

PUBLIC MEETINGS – October 2014

Hunger in Developed Countries: Why It Exists and How We Can End It

PERTH

Thursday 9 October

5.30pm – 7.00pm

Venue: Lecture Theatre 101, Tim Winton Bldg,
Curtin University

COST: Free

http://www.wacoss.org.au/services/eventsbookingDetails/14-08-18/Public_Lecture_Joel_Berg_on_Hunger_in_Developed_Countries_-_Thu_9th_Oct_2014.aspx

ADELAIDE

Friday 10 October

5.30pm – 8.30pm

Venue: Thebarton Community Centre,
Torrensville

COST: Donation

marketing@foodbanksa.com.au

CANBERRA

Wednesday 15 October

2.00pm – 3.00pm

Venue: Anne Harding Building,
University of Canberra
RSVP to Marial.Kot@canberra.edu.au

COST: Free

MELBOURNE

Monday 20 October

4.00pm – 5.00pm

Venue: Yarra Room,
Melbourne City Town Hall
<http://www.trybooking.com/106454>

COST: $10 Donation

ADDITIONAL PUBLIC LECTURE

School Lunches (Mis)shaping a Nation: Lessons from Australian school canteens and the United States on what not to do - and how to change it

SYDNEY

Thursday 16 October

6.00pm – 7.30pm

Venue: Medicine in 21 Century lecture
Charles Perkins Centre,
Missenden Road, Camperdown

COST: Free

<http://surveys.med.usyd.edu.au/limesurvey/index.php?sid=72319&lang=en>

